

The timeline illustrates the progression of the COVID-19 pandemic from March 2020 to February 2021. It is divided into four main phases: 1. Initial phase (March to May), 2. Second wave (June to August), 3. Third wave (September to November), and 4. Fourth wave (December to February). The timeline shows the progression of the pandemic with various events marked by colored bars and text labels.